Dear Henry,

Thank you for your interest in Johns Hopkins University. After a thorough review of your application, we regret to inform you that we are not able to offer you admission.

Every year we receive a large number of applications from talented students, making admission to Hopkins a highly selective process. For answers to some common questions, please see the FAQ below.

We wish you the best with your future educational and personal goals.

Sincerely,

Office of Undergraduate Admissions
Johns Hopkins University

Can I appeal my decision?

We do not accept appeals of admissions decisions, nor will we re-evaluate applications with new information. The decisions of the admissions committee are final and based on the information provided by the application deadline.
